Special Assembly on Gandhi Jayanti

I and II Girls' Section

*He was the apostle of peace, a light of freedom
Salutations to him on his birthday!*

It's a day of celebration,

It's a day to value a special person,

Who taught the world the lesson of non violence,

It's Mahatma Gandhi !

The Father of the Nation !

On 2nd October India celebrates Gandhi Jayanti, birthday of a great leader who gave the world the invincible weapons of truth, non violence and compassion. Mahatma Gandhi always insisted on truth and non violence as the inseparable part of humanism. Gandhi Jayanti is also celebrated as The International Non Violence Day.

Under the guidance of the Headmistress and with the co-operation of House Incharges along with their teams a Special Assembly was organized on 4th October in the I and II Block Girls' Section to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

The programme started with great zeal, enthusiasm and patriotism. Children shared anecdotes from Gandhiji's life highlighting Bapu's various contributions to India's freedom struggle. With his complete dedication and confidence Gandhiji freed India from the British Rule and proved the world that freedom can be achieved with non violence.

Human Chain: The girls formed a human chain with the aim to inculcate the spirit of cleanliness, from the initial years of schooling, so that every child values the importance of good, clean and hygienic living. We hope that this will definitely sow the seeds of a good human being and a good citizen in the children.

Candle March: A special treat for the eyes was the little girl impersonating Gandhi ji and girls in homespun sarees marching with candles, carrying the message 'peace is our dream'. Gandhi ji propagated and encouraged his countrymen to stay away from violence and find peaceful solutions to conflicts.

“ Ahinsa ka pujari, satya ki rah dikhane wala, emaan ka paat pardha gaya hame, Babu lathi wala”.

Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan: Spreading the philosophies of Gandhiji and the message of our honourable Prime Minister Mr Narendra Modi the girls presented an action song to commemorate one year of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. Tan Man Swachh To Bharat Swachh in which they depicted how important it is to keep our souls clean before cleaning the surroundings. The children chanted slogans on Swachh Bharat. The children were encouraged to keep their classroom, school and surroundings clean.

To promote vocational training among children Art and Craft Competition was held for all the students of classes I and II G.S. Children were motivated to make "The best out of waste". The different activities and presentations left a positive impact on the students. The leader who inspired millions should become the inspiration for the future generations of India.

Our Vice Principal Mrs Farhadunisa quizzed the children about Gandhi Jayanti and the children answered spontaneously. She appreciated the teachers for organizing and preparing the students within a short notice. She congratulated the children for their wonderful performance.
